Internet connectivity is the backbone of businesses today. Being offline for even 5 minutes is expensive, let alone an hour, a day, or longer!

Most IT professionals agree that failover to LTE is the most reliable and robust internet business continuity solution, but because monthly costs are unpredictable and surprise overages could happen at any time, it has simply been too risky, until now.

UptimePlus by CyberReef is the first ever UNLIMITED wireless failover solution. UptimePlus is unlimited wireless failover at a low, set monthly fee with no overages. With UptimePlus you get the most reliable business continuity solution without the risks of unpredictable monthly fees or the possibility of unanticipated overages.

Take the guesswork out of wireless failover with UptimePlus by CyberReef. No risks, no worries, no bill-shock!

UptimePlus is able to provide this fixed low cost service because it blocks non-business traffic like social media, streaming media, gaming, etc. during wireless failover.

UptimePlus also provides immediate alerting when in wireless failover mode. This gives the IT organization timely notice to address a failover situation.
